

Why land operators choose BondEx

Not a delivery company — a platform that supports your hotel-to-hotel delivery operations.

How it works today

You deal with every party separately.

BondEx

BondEx becomes the hub and takes on every hand-off.

01 Less burden on hotels

Hotels simply accept the luggage as usual. BondEx handles coordination with the carrier.

02 Less work for land operators

Register the itinerary and we handle everything from waybills and vouchers through to tracking.

03 Guest support by BondEx

From delivery status checks to enquiries, handled in multiple languages.

Pricing

Rates are proposed individually, based on your volume and how you use the service. One flat rate per piece — regardless of suitcase size or weight.

Getting started

BondEx is not a delivery company.

It connects delivery companies, hotels and travel companies — a platform supporting the whole hotel-to-hotel delivery operation.

Coverage

From major cities to regional areas, we deliver to hotels across Japan.
